

Mauritian Creole

an introduction by:
Dhruv Hardin

Table Of Contents

- A short introduction into Mauritian Creole
- How is the language used
- Overview of the outline of the sound system
- Morphemes AND more Morphemes
- SVO? Or VOS?

Mauritian Creole: A Short Introduction

- Diasporic Language
- French Based Language
- Ties to Original Bantu Language (Niger-Congo B)

Language influences: French, English, Arabic, Hindi
Significant Speakers found in: Mauritius, Australia, France, UNited Kingdom...

How is the Language used? (Sociolinguistics)

Lexicon / Vocabulary

- French
- AFrican Languagees
- Indian
- Asian

Synstax

- Less complicated structures as opposed to FRENCH.
- PROMINENT Code Swithcing

Verb Conjugation

- Time
- Tense
- Aspect (Situation)
- Mood

The Creole Sound System

PHONEMES

Consonenrts

- Voice Stops : "B", "D", G"
- Voiceless Stops : "P", "T", "K"
- Nasals : "N"
- Fricatures: "F, "S"

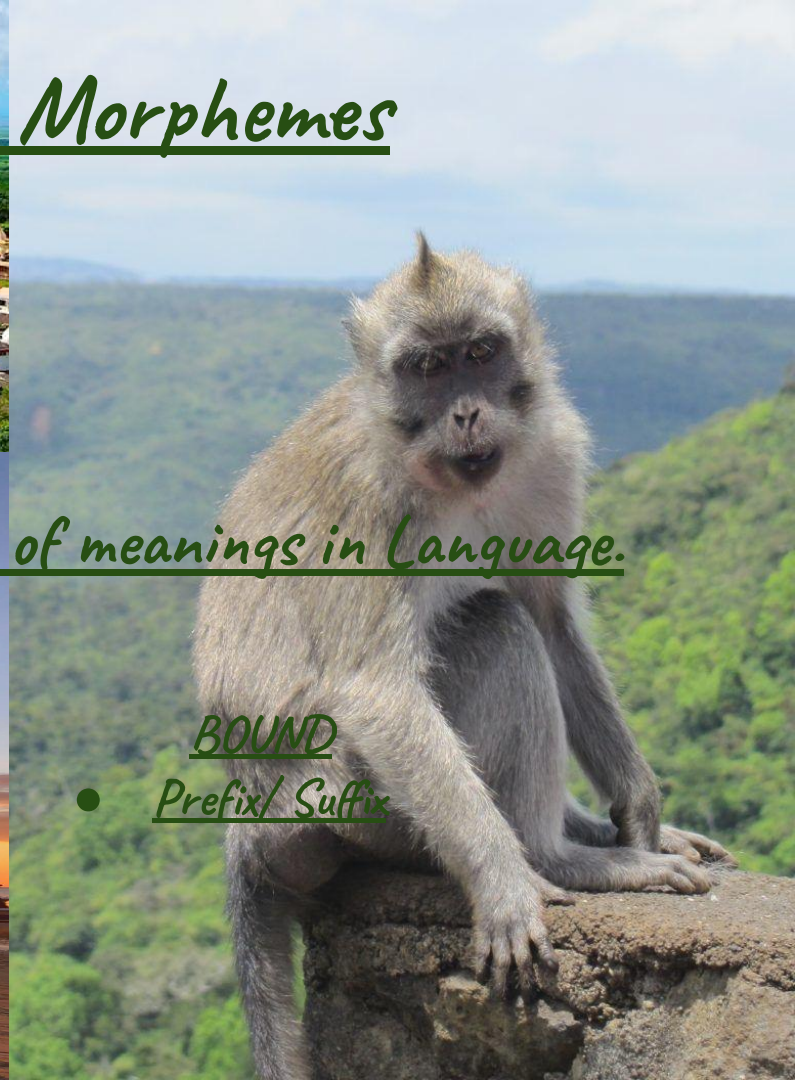

Vowels

- Shorty Vowels: "i", "e", "a", "o, "u"
- Long vowels: "i", "e", "a","o", "u"
- Tone
- Stresses

Morphemes and more Morphemes

Morphemes refer to the smallest unit of meanings in Language.

FREE

- Stands alone

BOUND

- Prefix/ Suffix

SVO Vs VOS

S
- Subject

V
- Verb

O
- Object

Example: Dhruv Kontan so Roti ek so Poul.

MERCI
Pou
ZOT
Attention.
(Mo souhaite zot en bonne continuation ek boucou Bonheur ek Prospérité Dans Zot Lavi).

